

Sample Note Cards

Number of source → 5

After experiencing his own problems paying bills due to delays in state payments, Representative Bill Black noted, "It's helped me focus on the fact that it's not a manufactured crisis" (qtd. in McDermott 1).

Parentetical citation worked into source

5

The problem for legislators isn't the amount of money designated to run their district offices but rather that the state is not regularly making payments due to a deficit that is nearly half of the state's annual budget (McDermott 1).